JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE COMMISSION ISSUES DECISION AND ORDER
IMPOSING PUBLIC ADMONISHMENT ON JUDGE BRIAN LAMB

The Commission on Judicial Performance has publicly admonished Judge Brian Lamb of the Inyo County Superior Court. The commission determined that it should issue a public admonishment to Judge Lamb for failing to timely act in three cases and by signing two false salary affidavits.

Judge Lamb failed to timely issue decisions in three family law cases. In one case, Judge Lamb delayed decision for more than 14 months. In another, Judge Lamb delayed decision for more than 12 months.

Judge Lamb's prior discipline for similar misconduct, on two separate occasions, constituted significant aggravation for the misconduct that was the subject of the public admonishment.

The public admonishment is available on the commission's website at <http://cjp.ca.gov> (under "Pending Cases - Press Releases & Documents" and "Public Discipline & Decisions") and at the commission's office. Judge Lamb is represented by Attorney Daniel S. Agle of San Diego.
